

REFLECTION GUIDE

After listening to Cultivating Deep Relationships in Schools and Beyond: Students and Staff (Healthy and Thriving Environments for Strong Connections and Strong Schools, Part 4), consider the following questions on your own or with a professional learning community.

Why do you feel it is important to know people on the school campus, both students and staff, on a human level? How might you take steps to getting to know people in a deeper way?

1

What are some ways that you hope to see positive relationships on campus shift or shape campus climate and culture?

2

As you reflect on the impact of relationships among staff on students and among students on staff, what might be one strategy that you would like to employ to improve relationships among each interest holder group?

3

As you think about setting a positive tone for learning, what might be a strategy you would like to try?

4

As a result of learning about deep relationships among/with staff and among/with students, how has your vision for a healthy and thriving school/community been impacted? What are the immediate next steps you will take to put your vision into action?
